October 13, 1929-Date of Paper
Spokane, Washington.

Major R. H. Wimpy came with his family to eastern Washington in 1872 and located on a ranch on Hangman Creek, near where Latah now stands. In the fall of this same year another family came from Walla Walla and located on the site of the present town of Spangle. In this family were William Spangle, who gave the town its name, his wife and four children.

In 1874 Joseph Wimpy, the oldest son of the Major, married Emma H. Spangle when she was but seventeen years of age.

Bell Wimpy, a daughter of the Major, married a Mr. King and they moved to Spokane Falls.

Emma H. Spangle was born in Illinois, 22 March 1858. She married Joseph Wimpy in 1874. Her daughter, Mrs. Millie Couchman lives at Spokane, her oldest son is in California, her youngest son Earl is in Spokane.

Wimpy's wife died and he married a second time.

24 November 1929

John C. Davenport was born in New York in 1830. After some years he found his way to Colfax, Washington, where he located in 1873. Prior to that time however, he had married Sarah A. Lowe and five children were born to them. Homer M., the oldest, at one time County clerk of Shoshone Co. Ida. Mary, now Mrs Robert Ewart, whose daughter is the wife of Charles F. Lund of Spokane, Josephine, who married C. B. Hopkins of Telephone fame; A. Lincoln, now a prominent business man in Aberdeen, Washington, and Eva, the wife of A.L. Paine, for many years in the lumber business in Aberdeen.

Came west in covered wagon fifty years ago, Mrs. Mary Henningsen,
Born in Scotland in 1857.

Mr and Mrs Gottfried Steitman celebrated their Golden Wedding on their home at Five-mile Prairie. Mr Steitman is 79 and his wife is 70. Both are natives of Saxony, Germany. Five daughters, one son, and several grandchildren, and two great grandchildren were present. They were married 10 November 1879. The daughters and sons-in-law attending were Mr and Mrs Anton Held, Mr & Mrs Bruce Albright, Mr & Mrs T. L. Briggs, Mr and Mrs Stanley of Spokane, Mr & Mrs George Redlin, of Dishman, and Rudolph Steitman, the only son, and Mrs Stietman also of this city. Mrs. L. C. Juno, a sixth daughter, of Page, N.D. could not attend. There are 18 grandchildren, and 2 great grand children in the family.

17 November 1929-Date of Paper
Spokane, Wash.

James S. Davis, Palouse pioneer, left England when quite a young man and came to America, settling first in Ohio. Here he met a Pennsylvania girl who became his wife. After some years in the Buck-eye State they moved to Wisconsin. Here they spent several years, then they moved to Washington, about 14 miles north of Colfax. This was in 1876.

Eleven Children were born to them. All but four are now dead. Of those now living, Charles resides at the old home place. The youngest girl, Lottie, now Mrs Lindley, with her large family resides at Enterprise, Oregon. Mrs Mary Ann (Davis) Martin lives in Spokane. Mr Davis died in 1896 at the age of 81.

The last named daughter, Mary Ann, married George W. Martin in 1887 and settled in Oakesdale, here their two children were born. James and Edna, now Mrs. Demitz, both live in Spokane. She has three grandchildren, all boys
