

1936 SKAGINA

CONNELL

Marge

#19 700

Muriel
Bradshaw.

"Emanuel Brown,"

M. F. Davis
Anderson

Mabelle Perry

1936 SKAGINA

SONNELL

Published by the Associated Student Body, Union High School,
Mount Vernon, Washington.

Friendly Mount Baker

Hallways are happy ways

Foreword

Radio magically opens to us great areas of knowledge and entertainment. High school is the wizard's wand which gives us power to obtain life's necessities, and ability to live and play with our fellows.

Dedication

The Spirit of Championship transcends championships themselves. It includes the desire to win, sportsmanship, devotion to the school, generosity in victory, friendliness in defeat. To this Spirit of Championship the Skagina of 1936 is dedicated.

In Memoriam

Mr. W. J. Hastie
Malvin Swan

Table of Contents

Administration

Classes

Activities

Athletics

ADMINISTRATION

School Board

Faculty

Student Council

MRS. ADA HALL
Chairman of Board
Avon, District 19

W. H. PHILLIPS
Clerk of Board
Riverside, District 38

JOHN WYLIE
Chairman of Finance Committee
Fir, District 16

H. H. ANDERSEN
Chairman of Education Committee
Midway, District 80

MISS NELLIE LEE
Chairman of Health Committee
Chairman of Junior College Committee
Meadow, District 3

MRS. WINIFRED LOCKHART
Ridgeway, District 29

G. M. TIDEMAN
Conway, District 24

P. M. SATHER
Lincoln, District 36

L. G. SILVERNAIL
Milltown, District 59

H. B. LEE
Chairman of Transportation Committee
Skagit City, District 57

J. A. REEVES
Superintendent of Schools

HARRY RANDALL
Fredonia, District 35

GLENN STOVER
Chairman of Building and Grounds Committee
Mount Vernon, District 306

C. S. SOINE
Harmony, District 20

VERA QUINN
Secretary to Board

J. Reeves

You have been here for four years. Where are you going now?

Your answer will not be determined by your friends nor your own mental ability, but by your effort, your ambition and your faithfulness to duty and ideals.

I have faith in the class of 1936.

MR. J. A. REEVES
Superintendent

Maurice Windus

MR. MAURICE WINDUS
Principal

The radio is a symbol of a rapidly changing world. Habits of thinking developed in high school should make it possible to study and analyze new ideas, and continue the process of education indefinitely.

Faculty

LAURA ANGST
 Science
 B. A., M. A., Ph. D.,
 University of Washington

KENNETH APPELGATE
 History
 B. S., M. A., University of Washington

Lucille Axelson

LUCILLE AXELSON
 Home Economics
 B. S., Washington State College

HAROLD BYRD
 Commercial
 B. B. A., University of Washington

Harold Byrd

ANN CURTIS
 Mathematics
 B. S., Beloit College

JOSEPHINE DAY
 Spanish, English
 B. A., University of Washington
 M. A., Columbia University

Donald A. Ferris

DONALD A. FERRIS
 History, English
 B. A., University of Washington

MINNIE GERRIETS
 Home Economics
 B. S., Washington State College

ROBERT S. HEAMAN
 Health, Physical Education
 B. S., University of Washington

JOHN KOLKANA
 Law, Civics, Mathematics
 B. S., Oregon State College

Harold Lang

HAROLD LANG
 Science
 B. S., Montana State College
 M. S., Ph. D., University of Washington

RUTH LAWSON
 English
 B. A., Willamette University
 M. A., University of Washington

Faculty

Charles H. Lewis

CHARLES H. LEWIS
Sociology
B. A., Ohio Wesleyan
M. A., Ohio State College

DANA LINCOLN
Manual Arts
Washington State College

EVERETT E. LOREEN
General Science, Agriculture
B. S., Washington State College

KATHRYN B. McCORMACK
Mathematics, English
E. A., University of Idaho

DOROTHY MILLER
Commercial
B. E. A., M. A., University of Washington

WILLIAM C. MOORE
Science
B. S., Oregon State College

CATHERINE MORSE
English, Journalism
B. A., Stanford University

HAZEL NESBITT
English
B. A., Carlton University
M. A., University of Washington

VALDIS OLSON
Health, Physical Education
B. S., M. S., University of Washington

AGNES M. SHIELDS
Library, French
B. A., Radcliffe College
B. A. in Library Science,
University of Washington

HARRY STEELE
Band, Orchestra
Vandercook School of Music
Chicago School of Music

MARY G. THOMPSON
Latin, Dramatics
B. A., Grinnell College
M. A., University of Washington

Mary G. Thompson

Students in the biology department study the animals of today and yesterday. The fundamentals for future science courses are included in their daily lessons.

What is more important than good health? All Freshman boys and girls study good health habits in the classroom three days of the week and devote two days to gymnastic work.

A cake or biscuits? Just a moment while it is mixed. Yes, boys and girls are taught how to plan, prepare, and serve meals according to scientific principles.

The high school cafeteria offers, every day of the school year, well balanced and excellent lunches prepared under the supervision of Mrs. Polson.

Thirty-six students taking second year Latin and thirty-six more deeply concentrating on their first year of Latin prove it an interesting and worth while subject.

An absence one day—an excuse the next. Office practice is offered to students in preparation for further business training.

Student Council: Mr. Windus, Principal; Welts, Freshman Representative; Ellinger, Senior Representative; Silvernail, Junior Representative; Bernhoft, Secretary; Siverson, President; Robertson, Assistant Treasurer; Blackburn, Sophomore Representative; Windus, Vice President; Mr. Kolkana, Faculty Representative; Mr. Byrd, Student Association Treasurer.

The year 1935-1936 has ended with pleasant, joyful memories under the excellent leadership of President Carroll Siverson.

He presided over this selected group in meetings once every month at which time, in round table discussion, the representatives conveyed opinions and messages of the Associated Students of the Mount Vernon Union High School. Any time an urgent and important matter demanded the opinions or decisions of these representative students, special meetings were called by the President with the consent of the Principal.

The first semester was a spirited one when the Seniors won the inter-class contest for the sale of the most Associated Student tickets, with only a small margin over the three other classes.

Such duties as buying supplies for athletic activities, and the discussions of financial problems were well accomplished by this group.

In the preceding spring the nomination for Associated Student Body officers was held, from which two nominees were selected by the Student Council with the approval of the faculty, who considered scholarship, leadership, and citizenship. Each year of the nominee's high school career was taken into consideration. The class representatives were elected at the beginning of this year.

According to the Constitution, in case of a vacancy five candidates shall be chosen by the Student Council. Three of the five named candidates shall be eliminated by the faculty, and the vacancy shall be filled by one of the remaining candidates, who is to be elected by the Student council. Constitutionally, any officer not fulfilling the duties of the office to which he was elected shall be recalled upon two-thirds vote of the students present and shall not be allowed to hold any office for the remainder of the year.

And so another successful year comes to the end as Station M. V. H. S. must say "Farewell" until the next school term.

CLASSES

Seniors

Juniors

Sophomores

Freshmen

Seniors

Senior Class Officers: Foreground; Ellinger, Student Representative; Johnson, Secretary; Meehan, Valedictorian; Lewis, Salutatorian; Nermo, Treasurer. Background; Miss Nesbitt, Adviser; Henshaw, Vice President; Davis, President; Mr. Lincoln, Adviser.

Proving the capability of their leadership, Russell Davis and the other officers ably managed the business and social affairs for their class.

Throughout the school year the seniors were successful in contests, assemblies, plays, music and sports. Sparky, the winner of the student ticket drive, was guided by Rita Moen. Five dollars was gained by winning the Skagina contest. Betty Cornelius, Carl Nermo, Lois Heimdahl, Carroll Siverson and Warren Bell took leading parts in the All-School play and in "Merely Mary Ann," the senior play.

Ten of the twelve "iron men" were members of the Senior class. They brought the Northwest football championship to Mount Vernon for the first time in sixteen years.

Besides the seniors whose pictures appear in the Skagina, the following also graduated: Fay Chavis, Gertrude Dannenmiller, Ruby Felt, Louise Forrest, Robert Forsythe, Dorothy Gilbert, Jean Larson, Mrs. Della Randall and George Williams.

The Seniors all proclaimed their Senior Day at Cranberry Lake on May 13 most enjoyable. By postponing their assembly program until the day following they were able to surprise the other classes completely.

The graduating class did its bit by paying for one of the ornamental lights on the campus. In keeping with the custom established by preceding classes, a placque bearing the numerals of the class was placed next to the light.

The class of 1936 held its Baccalaureate exercises in the auditorium on May 24. Reverend C. D. Swanson delivered the sermon. On May 27, Dr. E. A. Byran, President Emeritus of Washington State College, addressed the one hundred twenty-three graduating Seniors at their Commencement exercises. With this crowning event of their high school years, the Seniors bade goodbye and good luck to Mount Vernon High School.

Seniors

AEMMER, ELMER

Latin Club; Loudspeakers; Little Theatre Night; Senior Play; Quill and Scroll.

ANDERSON, MILDRED

Latin Club; Pep Club; Entered from Roosevelt High School, Seattle, 4.

BARRETT, KEITH L.

Operetta, 2; French Club; Loudspeakers; Glee Club, 2, 3; Christmas Program, 3.

Richard Anderson
ANDERSON, RICHARD

Pres. French Club; Ski Club; Operetta, 1-4; Honor Society, 2, 3; All-School Play, 4.

BERNHOF, BEATRICE

Secretary A. S. B., 4; All-School Play, 2, 3; Debate, 3, 4; Operetta, 4; Green M.

Warren Bell
BELL, WARREN H.

Vice Pres. Latin Club; All-School Play, 4; Senior Play; Torch Society; Operetta, 4.

BOUSLOG, MERVIN

Sec.-Treas. Green M; Football, 3, 4; Basketball, 2-4; Key Club.

Elizabeth
BLACKBURN, ELIZABETH

Latin Club; Girls' Club.

BULLA, C. T.

Boys' Club; Track, 4.

Helen Branigin
"Good Luck"
BRANIGIN, HELEN

Pres. Girls' Green M; University of Washington Play Day, 2; Skagina, 3, 4; Operetta, 3, 4.

JACK B
BURKHALTER, JACK V.

Operetta, 1-4; Green M; Football, 1-3; Senior Play; Ski Club.

BOYES, WILBUR

Operetta, 3; Loudspeakers; Class Yell Leader, 3; Bulldog Guard, 1; Christmas Chorus, 3, 4.

CARTER, JUNE L.

Girls' Club; Glee Club, 4; Entered from Kidder, South Dakota, 4.

C. Caling
CALING CHESTER

F. F. A.; Boys' Club; Basketball, 1; Fireman.

Aggie
COLES, AGNES F.

Quill and Scroll; Little Theatre Night; Loudspeakers; Glee Club, 4.

CHRISTIANSON, ALFRED

Football, 2, 3; Baseball, 4; Ski Club; Green M; Vice Pres. Class, 2.

Seniors

Leon

CORNELIUS, BETTY
Skagina, 3, 4; All-School Play, 4; Senior Play; Thespians; Quill and Scroll; Sec. Class, 1.

Velma Cox

COX, VELMA
Girls' Club; Glee Club.

CUSHEN, BOB
Football, 2-4; Vice Pres. Green M; Track, 1-4; Student Council, 2; Skagina, 4.

Bob

DAVIS, RUSSELL DANIEL
Football, 3, 4; Green M; Pres. Class, 4; Baseball, 4; French Club.

DE LONG, BOB
Football, 3, 4; Latin Club, 4; Pres. Boys' Club, 4; Key Club, 3, 4; Green M.

Mary E. Dodge

DODGE, MARY ELIZABETH
Girls' Club; Glee Club, 3, 4; Bulldog.

DUNHAM, DOROTHY
Bus. Mgr. Bulldog, 4; Band, 1-4; Orchestra, 1-4; Quill and Scroll, 4.

ELLINGER, DANIEL
Vice Pres. Student Body, 4; Class, 4; Baseball, 4; French Club. Football, 3, 4; Tennis, 1-4; Vice Pres. Class, 2, 3; Track, 3.

Alfreda Fredlund

FREDLUND, ALFREDA
Girls' Club; Glee Club, 3.

FREDLUND, LOIS ELAINE
Debate, 4; Bulldog, 4; Skagina, 2, 3; Pep Club, 4; Loudspeakers.

FRETS, MAXINE
Senior Assembly, 4; G. A. A., 1, 2; Glee Club, 1, 2; Little Theatre Night.

FULTON, HAZEL
G. A. A., 1-4; Green M; 3, 4; Pep Club, 4; Glee Club, 1-4; Girls' Club.

Fulton

GAASLAND, BOB
Boys' Club; Latin Club.

Bob G.

GENTRY, EVELYN
Band, 1-4; Girls' Club; Orchestra, 1-4.

Gentry

HAGMAN, LAWRENCE
Operetta, 1, 2; Glee Club, 1, 2; Boys' Club.

HARSH, KATHERINE
Girls' Club; Latin Club; Pep Club, 2-4; Christmas Chorus, 3, 4.

Seniors

HELDE, MELVIN K.

Baseball, 2-4; Treas. F. F. A., 4; Green M., 3, 4; Fireman, 3, 4; Boys' Club.

HEIMDAHL, HELEN LOIS

Honor Society, 2, 3; Torch; All-School Play, 3, 4; Senior Play; Glee Club; Thespians.

HENSHAW, JOE

Key Club; Vice Pres. Class, 4; Boys' Club.

HOLM, MILDRED

Girls' Club.

HOLM, REUBEN L.

Loudspeakers; Boys' Club; Junior Sportsman.

HOOPES, BETTE

Sports, 1, 2; Pep Club Treas., 4; Glee Club; Girls' Club; Latin Club.

HUTCHISON, JOHN D.

Green M., 3, 4; Football, 2-4; Basketball, 3, 4; Key Club, 3, 4; Ski Club, 4.

JOHNSON, RAYMOND

Band, 1-4; Boys' Club; Fireman, 4; F. F. A.

JOHNSON, RUTH

Vice Pres. Girls' Club, 4; Vice Pres. Latin Club; Girls' Green M.; Band, 1-4; Sec. Class, 4.

JOHNSON, JOHN

Football, 1-4; Green M.

JOHNSON, VIVIAN

Entered from Laramie, Wyoming; Pep Club; Glee Club; Girls' Club; Operetta, 2.

JOHNSON, WINONA

Torch; Honor Society; Vice Pres. French Club; Pep Club; Latin Club.

KARLSON, EDWARD

Pres. Fishermen's Club, 4; Baseball, 3; Loudspeakers.

KNUDSEN, METTA F.

Girls' Club; Glee Club, 1-4; Pep Club; Bulldog.

KUNFERMAN, PHYLLIS

Pep Club, 4; Class Song Leader, 3; Soccer, 1, 2; Bulldog; Glee Club.

LEE, ALLAN

Bulldog Editor, 4; Operetta, 3, 4; All-School Play, 3, 4; Skagina, 4; Quill and Scroll, 3, 4.

Seniors

LERCH, DOROTHY

Pep Club Pres., 4; Song Leader, 4; Class Sec., 3; Green M; Operetta, 3, 4.

LEWIS, JOHN T.

Torch; French Club; Latin Club; Key Club; Salutatorian.

LINDBLOOM, MARION

Class Pres., 1; Pres. G. A. A., 4; Sec. Girls' Club, 3; Debate; Senior Play.

LIDELL, MAX

Band, 1-4; Orchestra, 4; Ski Club, 4; Pep Band, 3; Minstrel Show, 3.

LOTHIAN, EDNA

Girls' Club.

LUND, PAUL

Latin Club; Boys' Club; Basketball; Skagina, 4.

LUTZ, HILDA

Girls' Club; G. A. A.; Bulldog; Pep Club.

MARTIN, BEN

Basketball, 2-4; Tennis, 2-4; Green M; Sec. Boys' Club, 4; Ski Club.

MASON, ALDEN LEE

Loudspeakers; Fishermen's Club; Boys' Club; Little Theatre Night.

MAUPIN, MARJORIE F.

Bulldog; Girls' Club.

McKEE, ESTHER

Orchestra, 2-4; Girls' Club.

MEEHAN, HARRIET

Valedictorian; Editor Skagina; Sec. Pep Club; All-School Play, 3; Torch.

MICKELSON, HELEN

G. A. A.; Pep Club; Girls' Club.

MOE, FLORENCE

Glee Club, 1, 2; Latin Club; Honor Society; Pep Club; Girls' Club.

MOEN, RITA

Pres. Girls' Club, 4; Little Theatre Night; Loudspeakers; Girls' Green M; Senior Play.

MURR, LEO

Fishermen's Club; Boys' Club; Junior Sportsmen's Club.

John Lewis

Max

Lutz

Marjorie Maupin

Love from the little Peach Nuts

Esther

Florence Moe

Rita

Seniors

Mabel

MURR, MABEL L.
G. A. A., 1-4; Girls' Club; Pep Club; Glee Club.

MURRAY, HUGH
Boys' Club.

Carl Nermo

NERMO, CARL
Bulldog Editor; All-School Play, 3, 4; Football, 3, 4; Baseball, 3, 4; Treas. Class, 4.

Raymond Ogden

OGDEN, RAYMOND
Pres. Loudspeakers' Club; Pres. Latin Club; Christmas Chorus, 3; Class Debate, 1; Bulldog.

Ted Olson

OLSON, JULIA
Girls' Club; Pep Club.

OLSON, TED
Orchestra, 1-3; Band, 1-3; Pep Band, 1-3; Yell King, 4; Ski Club.

Helen Omernaas

OMENAAS, HELEN
Pep Club; Girls' Club; French Club; Torch; Honor Society.

PALMER, H. SYBIL
G. A. A.; Green M; Loudspeakers; French Club; Latin Club.

Alice Paulson

PAULSON, ALICE MAURINE
Band, 3, 4; French Club; G. A. A.; Girls' Club.

PECK, FERN
Entered from Sedro-Woolley, '35; Pep Club; Girls' Club; Glee Club.

Alice Pender

PENDER, ALICE
Orchestra and Band, 1-4; Green M; Pep Club; Honor Society; G. A. A.

POLSON, ALFRED
Operetta, 1-4; Band, 1-4; Senior Play; Football, 3; Baseball, 3.

Terry W. Fowers

POWERS, TERRY W.
Stage Crew, 2, 3; Plays, 4; Loudspeakers; Bulldog; Fireman, 4; Little Theatre Night.

PROCTER, MARY ELLEN
Girls' Club; Entered from Salmon, Idaho, '35.

PROCTER, RUTH
Withdrawn from class.

RAU, JULIA
Glee Club; Girls' Club; Pep Club; Latin Club.

Seniors

RHOADES, CARMAN
Loudspeakers; Boys' Club.

RINDAL, CHRISTINE
Operetta, 3, 4; Glee Club, 2-4; Girls' Trio; Honor Society; Torch.

Walter Robertson

ROBERTSON, WALTER
Treas. A. S. B.; Key Club; Ski Club; Pres. Class, 2; Vice Pres. Class, 1.

ROTHROCK, RALPH W.
Fire Chief; Stage Crew; Loudspeakers; Senior Play; Little Theatre Night.

Floyd Sandell

SANDELL, FLOYD M.
Baseball, 3, 4; Future Farmers, 1-4; Fireman, 3, 4; Green M.

SCHIDLEMAN, DOROTHY
French Club; Latin Club; Loudspeakers; Little Theatre Night.

SCHROEDER, MARGERY A.
Skagina, 4; G. A. A., 3; Torch; Honor Society; Band, 1-4.

SHEPHERD, ARTHUR C.
Pres. Class, 3; Treas. Class, 2; Football, 3, 4; Basketball, 3; Key Club.

SHOOK, KENDELL
Class Rep., 1; Loudspeakers; Ski Club; Boys' Club.

SHUMWAY, FRANK WILLIAM
Football, 2, 3; Track, 1-3; Green M., 2, 3; Vice Pres. Boys' Club, 3.

SINGER, JOHN CECIL
Football, 3, 4; Baseball, 3, 4; Key Club, 3, 4; Green M., 3, 4; Latin Club.

Audrey Sinnes
SINNES, AUDREY
Operetta, 4; Skagina, 4; Torch; Honor Society; Girls' Baseball Mgr., 3; Pep Club.

SIPES, RITA JANE
Latin Club; French Club; Loudspeakers; Glee Club; Little Theatre Night.

Carroll Siverson
SIVERSON, CARROLL
Pres. A. S. E., 4; All-School Play, 3, 4; Pres. Thespians, 4; Treas. Class, 3; Pres. Honor Society, 3.

STEARNS, ADA
Operetta, 2-4; Senior Play; Bulldog, 3, 4; Green M.; G. A. A., 1-4; Clogging Club, 2-4.

SUND, WILLIAM
Glee Club; Eulldog Guard, 2; High School News Reporter, 4; Boys' Club.

Seniors

Clem
THEIN, CLEM
 Boys' Club; F. F. A.

Junior
THOMPSON, JUNIOR
 Boys' Club.

Jim
VALENTINE, VIRGINIA
 Vice Pres. G. A. A., 4; Torch;
 Quill and Scroll; Green M; Bus.
 Mgr. Bulldog, 4; All-School Play,
 4; Senior Play.

Chas civics slacks?
WALTNER, CHARLES E.
 F. F. A.; Boys' Club; Judging
 Team; Loudspeakers; Honor Society.

WALTNER, FRANK N.
 F. F. A.; Judging Team; Sportsmen's Club; Boys' Club.

yo
WEBSTER, JOSEPHINE
 Green M; G. A. A.; Pep Club;
 Operetta, 3, 4; Senior Play.

Mela
WELLS, FREDA ELEANOR
 Honor Society; Torch; French
 Club; Bulldog; Loudspeakers.

WESTERBECK, CHESTER J.
 Football, 1-4; Baseball, 2, 3;
 Bulldog Guard, 1; Green M.

Westy
WESTPHAL, MARION
 Song Leader, 4; Girls' Club;
 Little Theatre Night; Senior Play.

Vivian
WEYRICH, VIVIAN N.
 Glee Club; Girls' Club.

Betty
WHITE, BETTY
 Sec. and Treas. G. A. A.; Green
 M; Vice Pres. Pep Club; Torch;
 Orchestra, 3, 4.

YOUNG, ZELL
 Boys' Club; Eulldog.

CRUMRINE, INEZ IRENE
 Girls' Club.

JACKSON, SOPHIE M.
 Glee Club; Girls' Club.

NELSON, HELEN VIRGINIA
 Glee Club; Pep Club; Girls'
 Club.

Helen Nelson
OLSON, AGDA JO
 Pep Club; Girls' Club.

Juniors

Picture 1: Row 1; Church, Brusegaard, V. Anderson, Adamson, Barsness, Chinn, Brickey, Adams. Row 2; Bryant, Barrow, Billingsley, B. Anderson, Cameron, Burger, Allquist, Benjamin. Row 3; Buckner, Auckland, Braun, M. Anderson, Berkness, Branstad, Beeman, Bjork, Berger.

Picture 2: Row 1; Dalseg, Floe, Davis, County, Gage. Row 2; Girvin, Fotland, Gorton, Danielson, Engstrom, Ellingsen, Eliason, Franklin, Gehring. Row 3; Erickson, Fredlund, Cooper, Dale, Greenwood, Gormley, Currid.

Picture 3: Row 1; Jones, Houser, Mildred Johnson, Herrle, Holm, Jungquist, Karlson, Harsh. Row 2; Hill, Kallstrom, B. Johnson, Hayden, Jost, Hanson, Hegeberg, Hastie, Hawkins. Row 3; Hastings, Hutchison, Henshaw, Karlson, Kinney, Hendrickson, Hayton, Hanson, Melvin Johnson.

Miss Angst, Adviser; Bud Cooper, President; Gale Gehring, Vice President.

Gage

Many of the well known debaters this year were from the Junior class. The class team was composed of June McCormick and Donald Moberg. Ona Zell Mitchell was the able coach for this team which won the championship. Dorcas Lewis, Ona Zell Mitchell, and Milton Trafton were on the school team which had one of the Junior class advisers, Mr. Ferris, for its coach.

In the all-school play, "Shirtsleeves," Margaret Girvin, Margaret Shields, and Jacqueline Lowe earned memberships in the Thespians. Mary Turner and Jack McCain also had parts in the play.

Betticlaire Jones, Ona Zell Mitchell, Gordon Shea, and George Wright had leads in the operetta and many in the chorus were Juniors.

Bud Cooper, Gordon Shea, and John Baden all won letters in football. Max Dale,

Juniors

Picture 1: Row 1; J. McCormick, Nelson, H. McCormick, Lowe, Murr, Lewis, Olsen. Row 2; O'Hearne, Martin, Moore, Miller, Murray, Moberg, Meyer, Noble. Row 3; Ogden, McCain, Omenaas, McDonnell, Mitchell, Lee, Moa.

Picture 2: Row 1; Sharrett, Osen, Shields, Schultz, Quinn, Overstreet, Partington, Sater. Row 2; Sharp, Slagle, Quande, Pettet, Schweikhardt, Ropes, Petelle, Prutzman, Ozaki. Row 3; Pearce, Spahr, Phillips, Ramey, Shea, Schultz, Silvernail, Sollie.

Picture 3: Row 1; M. Tucker, Stewart, Thomas, Theodorson, Whitlinger, Williamson, Tennyson. Row 2; Tranter, E. Walker, B. Walker, Sund, Yeager, Thein, Wright, Stengar, R. Tucker. Row 3; Yoerger, Young, Teller, Trafton, B. Turner, Windus, Treese, M. Turner, Waltner.

Geraldine Overstreet, Secretary; Sigrid Yaeger, Treasurer; Mr. Ferris, Adviser.

Sigrid Yaeger

Frank Treese, and Harold Silvernail won letters in basketball. The Juniors also made a good showing in the baseball team.

Near the beginning of school the class gave an entertaining assembly with Popeye and Wimpy as the theme.

The Juniors also had twenty-four members in the honor society, one-half of the total membership.

The Junior girls made an enviable record in sports by winning champions in servusball, basketball, and soccer.

On May 23, the girls entertained the Senior girls at a tea given in the home of Winifred Brickey.

The final activity for the Juniors was the decorating of the auditorium and the gymnasium for Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Sophomores

Picture 1: Row 1; Carlson, B. Cannon, A. Cannon, Billingsley, Anderson, B. Brown, Barsness. Row 2; Barrow, Bell, Brisky, Blocksom, Buchanan, Burford, L. Brown, Blackburn, Beringer. Row 3; Boynton, Burbank, Bryant, Bergquist, Armstrong, Carryer, F. Brown, Baumgardner, Bice.

Picture 2: Row 1; Follman, K. Gilbert, Dunham, Cornelius, Costello, Dalseg, Dunlap, Crumrine, Dodge. Row 2; Dobson, Emory, Davis, E. Gibbons, Douglas, Gidlund, Coles, Clair, Connell. Row 3; J. Gilbert, Eliason, C. Gibbons, Freeman, Good, Eldridge, Green, Ewing, Dahl.

Picture 3: Row 1; I. Johnson, Hutchison, Hoag, S. Johnson, Hastings, Ingman. Row 2; Lassen, Hall, M. B. Husby, Harding, M. E. Husby, Hansen, Hendrikson. Row 3; H. Johnson, E. Johnson, Hofstad, Holmes, Hammer, Hedington, Hayden, Heggen.

Miss Olson, Adviser; William Schlichting, President; Florence Terry, Vice President.

To help make this year's Skagina possible, the Sophomore class contributed thirteen dollars to the annual fund. Willna Overstreet, Wilma Wright, Harriett Cornelius, Anita and Betty Cannon promoted pop-corn ball sales to raise this money.

Irene Johnson with her character tap dance won first prize in the amateur program on October 25.

The Sophomores, for their class assembly, presented another amateur program, December 13, 1935. Arthur Dobson acted as Major Bowes with Al Risbell "gong ringer."

Four of the six members of the Girls' All-Star Basketball team were Sophomores.

Sophomores

Picture 1: Row 1; Kallstrom, E. Locken, Johnson, Machin, Lee. Row 2; A. Locken, V. Johnson, Leaf, L. Lee, Meyers, McKinstry, McQuarrie. Row 3; Mickelson, Lloyd, McFarland, J. Johnson, Lee.

Picture 2: Row 1; Procter, Risbell, Sinnes, Steele, Springer, Smaby, Overstreet. Row 2; Pistemaa, Shair, Radke, Richmond, Nelson, Sandell, Osen, Nederlee. Row 3; Polly Packard, Perkinson, Schlicting, Scott, Purvis, Pierce, Peggy Packard.

Picture 3: Row 1; Zook, Snowden, Whitehead, Swan, Youngquist, Valentine. Row 2; Wright, Treese, Woll, A. Wilson, Thompson, Walker, Wilhonen, Tarry, B. Wilson. Row 3; Turner, J. Swanson, Westerbeck, Tennyson, Welts, S. Wilson, Swedeen, B. Swanson.

Willna Overstreet, Secretary; Barbara Costello, Treasurer; Mr. Moore, Adviser.

In the All-School Play presented on February 6 and 7, Willna Overstreet, Jean McQuarrie, and Lavern Zook represented the class of 1938.

The operetta "Tune In," which was presented March 20, 1936, was successful as far as the Sophomores were concerned. Of the entire cast of sixty-eight, twenty-five were Sophomores. Two of the twenty-five had leading roles. They were Everett Swedeen and Robert Welts.

In the inter-class debate, the Sophomore team composed of Helen Moen and Willna Overstreet defeated the Seniors.

Twenty-five Sophomores were in the Honor Society.

Freshmen

Picture 1: Row 1; P. Anderson, G. Anderson, Benedict, Carter, B. Anderson, Boyes, Cameron, Brandstrom. Row 2; Caling, Blackmore, M. Anderson, Austin, Armstrong, Burbank, Auckland, Blackburn. Row 3; Buckner, Chavis, Bradshaw, L. R. Anderson, Burger, Birchfield, Aabling, L. V. Anderson, Buck.

Picture 2: Row 1; Duncan, Dunham, Clevenger, Davis, Fagan, Good, Ewing, Ellinger. Row 2; Eliason, Gansberg, Dean, Garney, Cozad, Dailey, Fredrickson, Fox. Row 3; Duncan, Foster, Fleming, Eckenberg, Criss, Fader, Fotland.

Picture 3: Row 1; Hayton, M. Johnson, Granquist, E. Johnson, Hamilton, Hegewald, J. Hutchison, Hayano, Hicking, Bignell. Row 2; Helde, A. Johnson, Joslyn, Henshaw, E. Johnson, Hoverson, Iverson, L. Johnson, Kallstrom, Heggen, Spratley, Horton, Jensen, Hanson, M. Helstrom, Hollar, Kirker.

Miss Day, Adviser; Curtis Kirker, President; Kennedy McKenna, Vice President.

Curt Kirker

Though in most schools the Frosh have a decided reputation for being in the "greener" portion of the institution, this year's class has shown a decided turn toward the opposite. Possessing a talent in both the fine arts and sports, the class of 1939 will go far.

On September the nineteenth the Freshmen held their first meeting. Officers for the year were nominated. In later meetings the Frosh were presided over by Curtis Kirker who was elected president.

On October the twenty-fifth along came the amateur hour in which Gordon Tideman of the Freshman class won first place with his accordion. In February a freshman scored again, Curtis Kirker as the playful Theodore in the All-School Play, "Shirtsleeves."

Freshmen

Picture 1: Row 1; Nobles, Moores, Newman, Massar, Martin, Krieger, Mocroft, Lloyd. Row 2; Milsten, Nelson, J. Larson, May, Nott, Lockhart, Foster. Row 3; Lian, McKay, L. Larson, Millard, Lothian, McKee, Noste, Koffel, Smiley.

Picture 2: Row 1; Sevy, Perry, Rothenbuhler, Peck, Parks, Pemberton, Rhoades, Palmer. Row 2; Pettet, R. Smith, Robinson, Sharp, Schidleman, Paulson, Reeves, D. Smith. Row 3; Ropes, Ranes, Sather, Rarey, Shook, Schmidt, Simpkins, Pierce, Powers.

Picture 3: Row 1; Tucker, R. Williams, Tjernagel, Vaux, Young, Soderman, Steele. Row 2; Walker, Woodard, Swett, E. Williams, Snoeberger, Watkinson, Tutt. Row 3; Utgard, K. Stewart, Tideman, Watson, B. Stewart, Stancliff.

Betty Blackmore, Treasurer; Margaret Anne Ropes, Treasurer; Mr. Loreen, Adviser.

There were about ten boys from the Freshman class who gained a place on the second team in basketball.

Harriet Nobles, Mary Ellen Woodard, Marjorie Smiley, and Ruth Foster turned out for girls' sports consistently, gaining five places on the girls' teams.

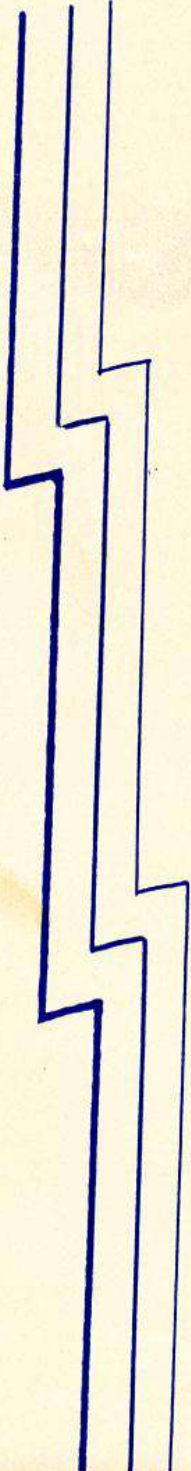

Quite a number turned out for the Freshman debate team. Out of these, Curtis Kirker and Betty Blackmore were selected to represent their class. Although this team did not win the inter-class debate cup, it was a credit to the class.

Paul Foster and Joe Wilkins made the second team in football. Paul was injured in the Burlington game and was unable to play the rest of the season.

ACTIVITIES

Productions
Honor Societies
Organizations
Publications

Picture 1. Shirtsleeves, All-School Play: Seated: M. Anderson, Valentine, Lowe, McCain, Shields, Nermo, Kirker, Girvin, Turner, Hicking. Standing; Schroeder, Yaeger, Stewart, R. Anderson, Snoeberger, Bell, Heimdahl, Powers, Cornelius, Siverson, Zook, Lee, McQuarrie, Bryant, Overstreet, Erusegaard.

Picture 2. Tune In, Operetta: Front; Wright, Welts, Swedeen, Stearns, Jones, Shea, Phillips, Polson, Rindal, Danielson, County, Anderson, Mitchell, Snoeberger, Nermo, Lerch, Cornelius, Ellinger.

Picture 3. Merely Mary Ann, Senior Play: Row 1; Eernhoft, Schidleman, Nermo, Cornelius, Siverson, Bell, Nelson, Lerch, Aemmer, Schroeder, Branigin, Webster, Heimdahl, Moen, Valentine. Row 2; Lee, Polson, Stearns, Westphal, Rothrock, Powers, Lindbloom, Burkhalter.

Picture 1, Band: Row 1; Gentry, Dobson, Franklin, Slagle, Trafton, Houser, Tucker, Ramey, Pierce. Row 2; Chinn, Hendrickson, Way, Boyes, Paulson, Sund, Silvernail, Heimdahl, Polson, Phillips, Valentine, Bjork, Boynton. Row 3; Steele, Schroeder, Dunham, Pender, Snoeberger, Lothian, Lee, Hollar, Eldridge, R. Johnson, H. Johnson, Anderson, Lidell, Lindbloom, Beringer, Gormley, Brickey.

Picture 2, Orchestra: Pianist; Berkness. Row 1; Pender, Benjamin, Walker, Trafton, Tucker, V. Johnson, Barker, Palmer. Row 2; Chinn, Dunham, Danielson, White, McKee, Franklin, Gormley, Howe, Bjork, Snoeberger, Heimdahl, Jungquist, Perry, Vaux, Anderson, Phillips, Lidell, Hall.

Picture 3, Christmas Chorus: Row 1; Brusegaard, Lewis, Stearns, Rindal, Jones, Walker, Hall, Valentine, Wright, V. Lee, Bell, Lewis, Boyes, Richmond, County, Sater. Row 2; Nelson, Barrow, Gehring, Packard, Danielson, Harsh, J. Sinnes, Pemberton, Berger, Snoeberger, Phillips, Sweeden, R. Anderson, Ropes, Wilson, C. Anderson. Row 3; Dodge, Harding, A. Sinnes, B. Franklin, Boynton, Westerbeck, Johnson, A. Lee, Hayton, Davis, D. Franklin, Abbott.

Picture 1, Quill and Scroll: Row 1: Cornelius, Houser, Stearns, Lerch, Wells. Row 2: Meehan, Dodge, Mitchell, Turner, Coles, Fredlund. Row 3: Valentine, Bernhoft, Miss Morse, Adviser; Snoeberger, Martin, Aemmer, Lee.

Picture 2, Torch Society: Row 1: Rindall, Schroeder, White, W. Johnson, Wells. Row 2: R. Johnson, Omenaas, Snoeberger, Lewis, Bell, Meehan, Harsh. Row 3: Mr. Lang, Adviser; Valentine, Sinnes, Siverson, Bernhoft, Heimdahl, Ellinger.

Membership in Quill and Scroll, the national honorary society for high school journalists, is difficult to gain. Each student who becomes a member must earn three hundred points figured on a basis of words printed in the school newspaper or work done on the school annual.

To become a member of the Torch Society, national honorary, is the reward of four years of high scholastic standing. Headed by Valedictorian Harriet Meehan, and Salutatorian John Lewis, there were twenty seniors who became members this year. All of these seniors deserve credit for their splendid records.

The Honor Society, composed of Sophomores and Juniors, had as its adviser Mr. Lang. Students must have no semester grade lower than a B in order to become a member. Twenty-five Sophomores and nineteen Juniors were in the society this year.

Honor Society: Row 1: B. Brown, Cornelius, Lidell, Lewis, D. Adams, Zook, Valentine, Ingman, Hawkins, McCormick, Overstreet, Brusegaard, Floe, McQuarrie. Row 2: Bell, Steele, Fredlund, Hastie, Moen, Turner, Wilson, Tarry, Gage, Schlichting, Quande, L. Brown, I. Meyer, Harsh, Blackburn, Wright. Row 3: Berkness, Currid, Young, Ropes, Hendrickson, Moberg, Trafton, Hammer, Gehring, Danielson, Stein, Yaeger, Pender.

"Resolved: That the several states should enact legislation providing for a system of complete medical service available to all citizens at public expense." With this as topic for discussion the debate teams had a busy year with Mr. Ferris, who was their coach.

Troupe 207 National Thespians, headed by Carrol Siverson, held monthly meetings at the homes of members to discuss current plays, operas, moving pictures, playwrights, and actors. On March 24, five new members were initiated, increasing the membership to twenty. The Thespians were advised by Miss Thompson.

Picture 1, Debate: Row 1; Lewis, Lindbloom, Mitchell, Coles, Houser. Row 2; Trafton, Bernhoft, Fredlund, Gehring. Mr. Ferris, Coach.

Picture 2, Thespians: Row 1; Bowen, Schroeder, Berger, Lowe, Cornelius. Row 2; Miss Thompson, Adviser; Pemberton, Snoeberger, Girvin, Shields, Olson, Kirker. Row 3; Meehan, Heimdahl, Bernhoft, Rothrock.

Forty senior girls, under the direction of Miss Miller, organized the Pep Club this year. With Dorothy Lerch as president, the club aimed to increase the support given the school teams. Cards and flashlight stunts and drill work were presented at games.

Pep Club: Westphal, Olson, Cornelius, Fredlund, Pender, Schultz, Valentine, R. Johnson, Fulton, Anderson, Kunferman, Stearns, Rau, Nelson, Forrest, Omenaas, A. Olson, Lindbloom, Schmidt, W. Johnson, Lerch, Miss Miller, Adviser; Moen, Hoopes, Schroeder, Meehan, Chavis, Mickelson, Webster, Branigin, Knudson, Moe, White, Peck, Murr, Johnson, Sinnes.

The members of the public speaking class organized the Loudspeakers' Club and chose Raymond Ogden as their president. Dorothy Lerch, vice-president and chairman of the program committee, prepared a fine program for each of the monthly meetings. The other officers were Jack Burkhalter, Secretary, and Carl Nermo, Clerk.

The Key Club is a Junior service organization for boys, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club. Its object is to aid in developing school activities. It is not an honor society, but a club open to all boys who show themselves to be good future Kiwanians. Joe Henshaw was president and Mr. Warren J. Gilbert was Kiwanis adviser.

Picture 1, Loudspeakers: Row 1; Cornelius, Lerch, Eranigin, Webster, Schidleman, Sipes, Knutzen, Coles, Wells. Row 2; Bell, Boyes, Palmer, Dodge, Moen, Valentine, Bernhoff, Fredlund, Aemmer, Lewis. Row 3; Miss Thompson, Adviser; Anderson, Shook, Mason, Ogden, Barrett, Holmes, Burkhalter.

Picture 2, Key Club: Row 1; Lewis, Windus, Dobson, Robertson. Row 2; Treese, Singer, Cooper, Ellinger, Henshaw. Row 3; DeLong, Hutchison, Dale, Shepherd, Shea.

Chief among the Future Farmers' activities this year was the placing of Frank and Charles Waltner on the livestock judging team which represented the state of Washington at Kansas City. The judging team, which also included Joe Burgess, took first place at Puyallup. Harold Silvernail, Shirl Bjork and Floyd Sandell attended the conference in Pullman in April.

Future Farmers: Row 1; Ozaki, Bell, Sinnes, Caling, Larson, Wm. Ewing, Sollie, Smith, R. Ewing, Hayano. Row 2; Lockhart, Baumgardner, B. Anderson, H. Johnson, Anderson, Fotland, Walker, Swanson, Brown, M. Johnson, V. Lee. Row 3; Mr. Windus, Pearce, Lloyd, Sandell, Spahr, Bjork, F. Johnson, Camern, Hayton, Mr. Loreen, Adviser.

Latin Club: Row 1: M. Anderson, McQuarrie, Brown, Bryant, Bell, Ingman, V. Johnson, Church, Cannon, Overstreet, Davis, Row 2: J. Meyer, Costello, Young, Danielson, Stein, Perkins, Singer, Murr, Gehring, Cornelius, Quinn, Row 3: Miss Thompson, Adviser: Harding, DeLong, Singer, Trafton, Moberg, Hutchison, Snoeberger, McCain, Petelle, I. Meyer.

Under the direction of Miss Thompson, the Latin clubs met twice each month to discuss and study the customs and ideals of the Romans. David Snoeberger, Margie Quinn, James Valentine and Jack McCain served as presidents. The clubs held a theatre party on March 6.

Picture 1, French Club: Row 1: Fredlund, Lewis, R. Johnson, Sipes, Brusegaard, Anderson, White, W. Johnson, Welis, Miss Shields, Adviser: Row 2: Walker, Meehan, Lindboom, Schideman, Pender, Valentine, Paulson, Moen, Omenaas, Row 3: Anderson, Davis, Lee, Barrett, Shea, Bernhoff, Lewis. Picture 2, Spanish Club: Row 1: Ploe, Hastie, Shields, Jones, Overstreet, Davis, Row 2: Franklin, McCain, Fredlund, McCormick, Tranter, Wright, Miss Day, Adviser, Row 3: Currid, Petelle, Quande, Turner, Johnson, Schweikhardt, Berkness.

Los Socios Espanoles, the Spanish Club, met twice a month with Miss Day as adviser. Jack McCain and George Wright acted as presidents. The programs given by members of the club were entertaining and educational. The Spanish and French clubs enjoyed a skating party at Wickersham in February.

"Parlez-vous Francais?" It must be the French club. Under presidents Richard Anderson and John Johnson the club held monthly meetings. Programs, prepared by Winona Johnson and consisting of music and talks on France, were presented. "Le Voyage du Monsieur Perichon" was dramatized and presented in French at one of the club meetings. Miss Shields is the adviser of this group.

Picture 1, Firemen: Row 1; McCormick, Hedlund, Tranter, Bjork, Shook, O'Hearne. Row 2; Mr. Appelgate, Adviser; Pearce, Hutchison, Johnson, Rothrock, Sandell.

Fishermen's Club: Row 1; Beringer, Noble, Anderson, Massar, E. Karlson, Risbell, Dahl, Mason, Nelson. Row 2; Mr. Windus, Euckner, Tjernagel, Hollar, Tranter, Stender, Buchanan, Windus, Walker, Mr. Kolkana, Adviser. Row 3; Spahr, M. Karlson, Beeman, Eldridge, Murr, McCain.

A prolonged ringing of the bell and out go the students, no matter what the weather. Just another fire drill. Ralph Rothrock, chief fireman, and his assistants found that seventy seconds was the shortest time taken to clear the building.

To catch the biggest fish as well as to tell the biggest yarns, the Fishermen's Club was organized this year. The club made arrangements with the game commission to plant fish in the best streams this spring. A library of sportsmen's magazines and a display of fishermen's equipment was collected by the club. Mr. Kolkana was the adviser and Edward Karlson was the president.

Aiming to develop a greater interest in skiing, the Ski Club was organized this year. With Mr. Byrd acting as adviser and Dan Ellinger as president, the club enjoyed three trips to Mount Baker. Members reported lots of fun but sunburned faces and aching limbs.

Ski Club: Row 1; Bell, Massar, Hollar, Hegewald, Eldridge, Polson, D. Hastings, Fader, R. Ewing, H. Hastings, Bice, Zook. Row 2; Williams, Youngquist, Tjernagel, Smaby, W. Ewing, Nobles, Lloyd, Anderson, Baumgardner. Row 3; Nermo, Beeman, Mr. Windus, Adviser; Lewis, Hendrickson, Windus, Hutchison, Ellinger, Moa, Martin, Olson Burkhalter, McCain, Buchanan, Christianson, Schlichting, Mr. Byrd, Adviser; Hofstad, O'Hearne, Robertson. Row 4; Cushen, Shepherd, Scott, Shea, DeLong, Shook, Dale.

With the cooperation of the adviser, Miss Curtis, and the officers and committee chairmen, the Girls' Club has had a record year in the presentation of its activities. Rita Moen was president; Ruth Johnson, vice president; Winifred Brickey, secretary; Sigrid Yaeger, treasurer; Ruth Johnson, chairman of program committee; Evelyn Gentry, chairman of sunshine committee; Josephine Webster, chairman of Christmas gifts committee.

The activities included the Big Sister Movement, Christmas Baskets, Christmas Pageants, County Leaders' Banquet, Play Day at Concrete, and the Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet. Two mixers were held during the year. In the first, many decorative costumes carried out the idea of Old Spain, and various characters of the funny papers provided the atmosphere in the second.

Miss Curtis was forced to leave school because of illness in the last semester, and Miss Miller willingly filled her place to aid in carrying on the club's program for the remainder of the year.

Girls' Club Officers: Brickey, Secretary; R. Johnson, Vice President; Packard, Sophomore Representative; Moen, President; Spratley, Freshman Representative; Yaeger, Treasurer.

Boys' Club Officers: DeLong, President; Mr. Kolkana, Adviser; Johnson, Vice President; Ellinger, Chairman of Entertainment; Nermo, Treasurer; Martin, Secretary; Olson, Chairman of Music; Sandell, Chairman of Refreshments.

The Boys' Club is an organization to membership of which all boys of the high school student body are eligible. Its purpose is to encourage and maintain school spirit, to develop leadership, and to bring about a closer relationship with other schools of the district.

Outdoor clubs have been organized as subunits of the Boys' Club. They are the Fishermen's Club and the Ski Club. Next year several other clubs are contemplated, such as a Mountaineers' Club and a Nature Study Club.

The outstanding event of the Boys' Club of 1935-36 was the annual fathers' and sons' mixer which was held during the first semester in honor of the Freshmen. The gymnasium was decorated in carnival fashion. Ten booths consisting of a beano game, gallery and others provided amusement for the evening. Each boy was allowed to compete once at each booth. If he made a score higher than the preceding high score he was awarded a bag of peanuts. At the close of the evening a grand prize was awarded the high scorer of each event.

During the year interesting motion pictures of coast conference football games were presented by the Associated Oil Company. The club also secured moving pictures of well known track stars, which were presented by Mr. Widmer. These pictures were presented in slow motion while Mr. Moore and Mr. Appelgate explained the form of the athlete.

The club's officers for the year were Bob DeLong, president; John Johnson, Vice President; Ben Martin, Secretary; Carl Nermo, Treasurer; Mr. Kolkana, Adviser.

Picture 1, Skagina: Meehan, Editor-in-Chief; Valentine, Mitchell, Hastie, Miss McCormack, Adviser; Schroeder, Branigin, Welts, Stewart, Cannon.

Picture 2, Skagina: Snoeberger, Business Manager; Lund, Connell, Miss Day, Adviser; Cornelius, Lerch, Johnson, Lee, Cushen, Overstreet, Sinnes.

Picture 3, Bulldog: Houser, Chinn, Brickey, Barrow, Turner, Mitchell, Advertising Manager; Maupin, Kunferman, McClellan, Gage, Ogden, Powers, Aemmer, Valentine, Business Manager, first semester.

Picture 4, Bulldog: Fredlund, Lutz, Gage, Neramo, Editor, second semester; Martin, Miss Morse, Adviser; Lowe, Coles, Bernhoft, Knudsen, Lee, Editor, first semester; Ellinger, Christiansen, Young, Walker, Stearns, Welts.

From the sale of the first Skagina until the finished product goes to press, the Skagina staff is busy. The central theme of the yearbook must first be conceived; then drawings are submitted by the staff artists for approval by the editor.

Each of the department editors must then plan his own section of the book, draw panels and prepare pictures. By this time the photographer is ready with all the pictures which are used in the Skagina.

Write-ups come next, all of which must be checked, and rechecked. The pictures must then be identified and mounted and afterwards sent to the engravers. Copy goes to the printers and when it is returned it must be checked again for errors.

It is the aim of the entire staff to make the 1936 edition the best Skagina ever published.

The work of the journalism class is never finished, for no sooner is one issue of the Bulldog published than another must be prepared.

Each of the members of the class has a newspaper beat which must be covered for each issue. The cub reporter writes his story which is corrected by the more experienced reporters or the editor. Rewrites are not infrequent occurrences for any reporter. The articles are finally approved by Miss Morse, adviser.

The editor-in-chief, the feature editor, the sports editor, the business manager, and the adviser spend every other Saturday making the paper ready for press. The final responsibility falls on the editor who spends much of his school time on Monday completing the paper for Tuesday's publication.

Tumble Palace by Verna Pettet

(The following short story is an example of regular class work in Junior composition)

Penny pressed her small nose flat against the window and watched a tall man assist a slender blonde woman into a large car. It was rather hard for her to see through the gathering dusk and her tears, so she turned and sat down on the broad steps which curved from the hall upward.

"Nobody loves us, do they Snoops? Nobody 'cept Daddy."

Snoops wagged his assent.

Penny looked deep into the trusting amber eyes. "Mother used to, but," her lips quivered, "that was before she knew Mr. Weatherby."

She reached out and drew the small dog closer. "I'll tell you a secret, Snoops, not a very nice one. Mother went out with Mr. Weatherby tonight, and before she went, she told me Mr. Weatherby might be my new daddy."

Her nose sniffed the air vigorously, and she fancied she could still smell Mother's delicate perfume. She had noticed it at once when Mother had come into her room. She had been looking at a book Daddy had sent her, and Mother had said, "Penny, dear, come here."

Penny had gone eagerly.

"How would you like to have a new daddy?" Mother's smile was charming.

Penny had drawn back suspiciously. "Not Mr. Weatherby."

"Why, Penny, you know that Mr. Weatherby has been very nice to you."

"He—he doesn't like Snoops," Penny had wailed.

The smile had left Mother's face. "Penelope, you're a silly little girl." She had given Penny's cheek a peck and hurried out.

Snoops wiggled his ears softly as he felt the warm tears falling on his head.

"Penny!"

Penny jumped and started up the stairs. "C'mon, Snoops. We have to go to bed."

When she reached the top of the stairs, her arm was grasped firmly and she was marched hurriedly to her room. Jane always did everything hurriedly. Penny scarcely heard her. She seldom heard Jane's ravings. She simply sat huddled in the middle of the bed and thought wickedly how much like a pig's were Jane's small eyes.

Presently Jane was gone, and Penny lay quietly while the lump stayed in her throat and tears kept welling up from nowhere. She brushed them wearily away and slipping out of bed, went softly to the door. From the other side came a soft scratching noise. She opened it quietly and shut it again, then went back to bed. That was all. But it was enough. Snoops was snuggled beside her this time.

Snoops was a comfort to her. She didn't see how she could get along without him. She shuddered as she thought of Mr. Weatherby's regard for Snoops. Mr. Weatherby loathed mongrels, and Snoops, he informed Penny loftily, obviously had no pedigree.

Penny had chosen Mr. Weatherby for her special enemy since that day. Of course she knew that that was not the only reason she disliked him. He seemed always to assume a lofty air with her, and he was forever sniffing at things. He sniffed when she slid down the banister, and he sniffed quite viciously if Mother mentioned Daddy.

The lump in her throat grew bigger than ever when she thought of Daddy. If he were here everything would be all right. Nothing had been right since he had gone away. There had been a dreadful day which she had spent in court, with Mother and Daddy glaring at each other and then at the judge, and speaking her name often. Then Mother had led her away, and she had looked back and seen Daddy standing with his hands clenched and his eyes burning. It had made her heart ache.

She longed for Daddy with all her heart. He would play with her and read to her, and they would laugh at Daddy's jokes and Snoops' tricks. When Mr. Weatherby's lips smiled, his eyes didn't. But Daddy's whole face smiled. His eyes were warm and twinkly, and they made Penny feel good inside. Daddy also loved Snoops, nearly as much as she did.

Penny's eyes were drooping and her sobbing breaths were becoming long and even, when she heard a grating sound at the window. She peeped cautiously over the coverlet and then ducked her head under quickly. Her heart was pounding fiercely and she held Snoops tightly in her arms. She had seen some one coming in at the window. She could think of no one but Mr. Weatherby. She had dreamed several times of his taking her off and had awakened screaming for Jane. But now her heart stilled a little for she could think of no one worse than Mr. Weatherby, and she did not think this was Mr. Weatherby. Snoops was trying to wiggle from her grasp, but he was not growling, and Snoops' hatred for Mr. Weatherby could always be heard if less than a block separated him from that gentleman.

She struggled a little as the coverlet was drawn back and strong arms lifted her, then she grew strangely quiet. The large dark form slipped silently out of the window and down a ladder with his burden. He had wrapped the coverlet around her and it flapped out behind him as he ran lightly across the yard to a waiting automobile. The purring engine could scarcely be heard.

He deposited her swiftly on the seat and drove off down the street.

Penny sat very quietly in her corner, huddled in the coverlet, and surveyed her captor with large round eyes. Presently she turned her head and looked out of the window. The black sky was sprinkled with stars, and dark forms sped mysteriously by in the night. Then she turned towards the driver and said, "Hello, Daddy."

The man started violently, then with a swift motion he removed the black mask which halfway hid his face. A pair of twinkling blue eyes, much like Penny's, looked down at her. "You little minx," he cried, drawing her into the circle of his arm, "how did you know it was I?"

Penny sighed contentedly and rested her head against his shoulder. "I could tell because you had the ring I gave you on your finger, and Snoops didn't bark, and oh," she smiled slyly, "I could just tell."

The strange wriggling which had begun under the coverlet became more frantic. Penny looked up at Daddy with a gleam of mischief in her eyes and he said, "Suppose you show me what that is." Penny loosened the coverlet and out popped Snoops. He whined excitedly, and put his wet, sloppy kisses first on Daddy's cheek and then on Penny's.

Penny was content. She was with the two whom she loved most. The thought of Mother troubled her. What would Mother think? Would she miss her? Penny didn't think she would.

"Daddy?"

"Yes."

"Why did you come after me?"

Daddy tousled her hair. "You didn't sound exactly happy in your last letter. Didn't you want me to come?"

Penny gasped. "Oh yes, Daddy; I'm awfully glad you came. Now I won't have to worry about Mr. Weatherby any more," she added, smoothing the coverlet in satisfaction.

Daddy glanced at her from the corner of his eye and cleared his throat. "Who—just who is this Mr. Weatherby?"

"Oh, he's just a man. He comes to our house quite often, and he might be my new daddy. But," Penny squeezed Daddy's arm comfortingly, "he won't be when I'm with you, and I don't like him, not the teeniest bit."

Daddy nodded. "Does—do you think your mother likes him very much?"

Penny looked up at Daddy and spoke in a hushed voice. "I—I guess she does, Daddy."

They drove on in silence. Penny wondered where they were going.

"Daddy?"

"Uh—yes?"

"Where are we going?"

Daddy smiled. "It's where you want to go most I think."

Penny's eyes began to dance. "Not 'Tumble Palace'!"

Daddy nodded.

Penny hugged Snoops and shut her eyes tight. She could see the small log cabin settled among the tall trees on the mountain side. It had only three rooms and gay curtains at the windows. Mother had made the curtains herself. Before Daddy had gone away, they had gone there every summer. Mother had said they were as happy as in a palace there, and Daddy, who seemed always to have a hammer in his hand, had smiled and said pieces were forever tumbling off the palace. Penny called it "Tumble Palace."

She had not seen it for over a year, but she remembered every inch of it.

She turned enthusiastically. "Daddy, when will we be there?"

"It won't be long now."

Penny settled back against the seat. It was long past her bedtime and she felt a little tired. She was so glad Daddy was near. Tumble Palace . . . dear Tumble Palace . . . if only Mother . . .

She awoke with a start. She was still sitting in the car, and Daddy was calling her from the open door. "Here we are at Tumble Palace, Queen Penelope."

Penny opened her eyes slowly, then sprang from the car. Daddy caught her up in his arms. She clutched his hand and breathed deeply.

They made their way towards the door, with Snoops rushing frantically around Daddy's feet. The room was cozy and warm and a fire crackled merrily on the hearth. Spread on a chair was a new playsuit and a pair of sandals.

Daddy smiled at Penny's shining eyes. "I slipped in to make it comfortable before waking you," he explained.

Penny lay snuggled in her bed. It was not her soft downy bed at home but a firm little bunk, built into the wall of the bedroom at Tumble Palace. Daddy was in the living room reading, and Snoops was snuggled at the foot of her bed.

Daddy prepared their breakfast and she set the table with the gay dishes from the corner cupboard. She loved to work in the kitchen with Daddy. They sang funny songs, and Daddy let her taste things.

Daddy had presented his food a little shamefacedly. "Of course, Penny," he had assured her, "should we decide to stay awhile, I'll get a cook book and brush up on my vitamins and calories."

Penny had become serious and had said that his cooking was the best she had ever tasted. She grew frightened when Daddy spoke of how long she should stay. She refused to think of returning home. However, she had made up her mind that should she have to go back, Snoops should stay with Daddy.

The next day Daddy called Penny from play and held her on his knee. "Penny," he began, "don't you think your mother might be worried about you?"

Penny nodded.

"I sent your mother a letter, Penny, and told her where you are. I explained to her that I had taken you away as I did because I knew if I asked her properly for your visit, she wouldn't listen. In the letter I told her that if she objected to your staying a while, to let me know and I would return you." Daddy's eyes were grave. "I'm telling you this, Penny, because then if you must go back suddenly you'll understand."

Penny nodded again. She slipped from Daddy's knee and went outside. She stood still and looked around her. This was Tumble Palace, in the center of its vast domain. She was happy here and so was Daddy.

The next morning Penny tried to be cheerful. Daddy looked sad, and he hadn't looked like that before Penny heard about the letter. So she laughed when her heart didn't feel like laughing.

Usually after lunch they went for a walk, but today it was raining. Not in torrents, but a soft pattering shower that tapped softly at the windows. It made Tumble Palace seem very cozy inside, and Penny and Daddy sat before the fire, playing with dominoes.

Suddenly there was a tap, tap, tap. It was louder than the tap made by the rain and it was at the door, not the window.

Penny sat very still and her eyes grew wide. Daddy opened the door. Penny gave a little gasp. It was Mother. She was very pretty as she stood there in the doorway, slender and blonde. Small dewy raindrops glistened on her long lashes, and her delicate perfume drifted on the air.

Penny sniffed vigorously, and looked at Daddy standing straight and tall with his grave, blue eyes. Why didn't they move? Why didn't Mother let out a torrent of angry words and ask for her?

"Well," Daddy's voice was a pleasant drawl, "maybe you've come to the wrong place."

Penny hugged Snoops and her heart beat furiously.

Mother looked over at Penny, then back at Daddy. "Oh, no—you see, I really belong here." And Mother's smile was charming.

Can Poverty Be Abolished? by Allan Lee

(This essay was written as an assignment in journalism and was entered in the national editorial contest sponsored by Quill and Scroll. The contest topics were of national and worldwide interest.)

Jack is a bum, real and genuine. Unshaven, unkempt, and wearing tattered shoes and dirty trousers, he tramps the streets day after day, asking this question over and over, "Buddy, can you spare a dime?"

You have seen Jack, or one like him, many times in the last few years. Sometimes you give him a dime, and sometimes you don't. When you can spare a dime, do you follow the recipient and see what he does with it? Usually not. Some bums use it for food but many spend it on liquor or drugs and then crawl into a filthy hovel and sleep off the effects of the day's "work."

Suppose you gave Jack, or one of his compatriots, a sum of money and a decent home with enough work to keep him busy. Would he become rehabilitated overnight and change into a respectable, hard-working citizen? No, he has grown too used to getting things for nothing and besides, he is not the product of the last few years. Jack's father was a diseased drunkard and he suffers from the same thing. In the course of a few months he will have spent the money and be back in his old haunts.

Yes, we can abolish poverty; but it is a long process and requires much time and expense. We have to abolish the doles and give only for value received. We must enact rigid eugenic and sterilization laws in order to prevent diseased persons and imbeciles from perpetuating their kind.

Accomplish the things mentioned above and we may some day hear for the last time that weary refrain, "Buddy, can you spare a dime?" But as yet these things are distant dreams which each and every one of us should help to make a reality.

First Thanksgiving by Carmen Anderson

(Carmen's poem was the winning entry in a contest sponsored by the Bulldog with the aid of the English classes.)

The Pilgrims, who from England came,
Had landed on Cape Cod,
And spent a year with winter long, till
November found them
thanking god.
Kind Guardian, He protected them from

Savage Indians, hovering near.
Goodness shown in many ways
Inspired thanks to Him so dear.
Very precious, ever since,
In this our Land, this day became.
Now let us keep with spirits true, the Greatness of this day of fame.

Snow by Patricia Iverson

(This essay is one written for an assignment in Freshman composition)

Softly it floats out of the leaden, gray sky, covering the world with a soft blanket of white. Snow, that turns the world from a brown place to whiteness that is like an angel's gown. To me the snow is the most fascinating thing I have ever seen. The flakes that fall from the sky seem to sparkle like diamonds when the sun comes out. The snow helps to keep the ground from freezing when it gets cold. Without snow the winter wouldn't be the winter as we know it.

Snow is the most beautiful form of frozen water. It falls in crystals and other geometric forms that under the microscope are sights that look as if they come from another world. Some are in large flakes which come when the weather is cold. "Tapioca" snow is snow in little, round, hard balls. All of it, in my estimation, is a most gorgeous spectacle.

Children love it, grown men play in it. The snow seems to be so enticing that men and women can't resist the temptation of coming outdoors and playing as they did when they were children. Children go sledding, make snowmen and snow forts, and have snowball fights. I like to do those things also.

Out Fishin' by Peggy Richmond

("Out Fishin'" was the only poem from this high school to be included in "West Winds," an anthology of high school poetry of Washington, published in May of this year.)

Oh gee, but I'd like to go
Out fishin'!
I'd like to get a boat and row
Out fishin'.
N' catch a whale,
Or catch a shark,
And stay out maybe till it's dark;
And even I might hit the mark
Out fishin'.

All my pals that I know, go
Out fishin';
And their daddies give 'em boats to row
Out fishin';
So pop, don't you be the one that's slow—
Get a boat for me that's fun to row,
Or a boat with sails that the wind can blow
Out fishin'.

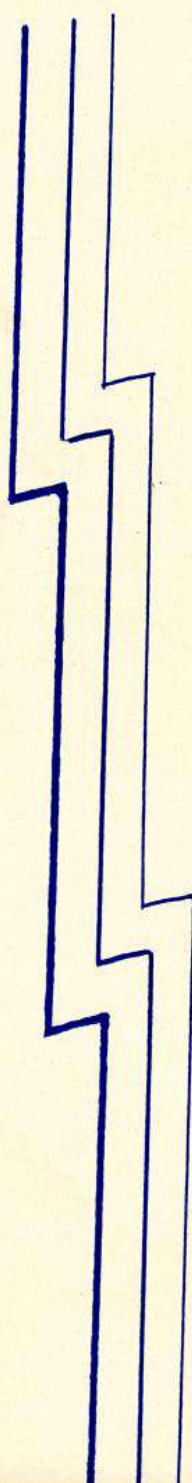

ATHLETICS

Football

Basketball

Spring Sports

Girls' Sports

Northwest Champions for the 1935 season! That's the record of Mount Vernon's Bulldogs for this year. Winning six games and tying one with Anacortes gave them both the county and the district championships. This is the first time in over fifteen years that the Bulldogs have won the latter honor.

Under the guidance of Mr. Heaman, the squad started turning out on August 20 and practiced long and late in order to perfect their machine. The reasons for the team's success were teamwork and enthusiastic support from the students and townspeople.

Mount Vernon, 32—Fairhaven, 0

In their first tilt of the season, a night game with Fairhaven on Battersby field in Bellingham, the Bulldogs literally "went to town." Led by Bob Cushen and Danny Ellinger, the locals engineered a running and passing attack that swept the Grizzlies off their feet.

Russ Davis, Bulldog guard, blocked a punt on Fairhaven's 8-yard line and Ellinger skirted the end to score. Davis played a stellar game throughout and in the second canto blocked another kick in the end zone for another touchdown. Cushen, on a fake reverse, hit tackle for a gain of 17 yards, then on the same play went over for a score. Wilkins, Bulldog end, then recovered another ball in the end zone for another touchdown.

Statistics show that Mount Vernon made 12 first downs to Fairhaven's three. Mount Vernon was penalized a total of 65 yards while the Bellingham team was penalized 15 yards.

Mount Vernon, 27—Snohomish, 0

A succession of rapid gains by Shepherd and Ellinger in the first quarter brought the Bulldogs to pay dirt where Ellinger went over for a score.

In the second quarter Singer went around end and flipped a lateral pass to Ellinger who scored again. "Scotty" Hutchison recovered a fumble and started the Bulldogs on a march to the 11-yard line where a pass to Bouslog was completed for another touchdown.

The last score came in the third canto when Ellinger hit the line for a 35-yard run for a touchdown.

Mount Vernon, 21—Whatcom, 0.

Coach Heaman's boys scored a crushing defeat over Whatcom on Askey field when a brilliant passing attack in the second half clicked for two touchdowns and Wilkins intercepted a pass for a third score.

During the first half the Bulldogs were a bit jittery and were defending their own goal line most of the time. In the second half a passing attack with Cushen and Singer on the passing end and Shepherd and Wilkins on the receiving end assured Mount Vernon of victory.

Wilkins then made a play long to be remembered in the hearts of Mount Vernon fans. "Buck" blocked a pass by Childs, Whatcom back, caught it in mid-air and raced 15 yards to a touchdown.

The Bulldogs had a total of 10 downs to 5 for the Redskins, and on passes, the locals rang the bell 8 out of 13 times while Whatcom completed 2 out of 12. Mount Vernon was penalized twice for 20 yards and Whatcom lost 35 yards in penalties. Ellinger was out most of the game because of a back injury received in the first quarter.

There were no stars in this game, all eleven men playing heads up ball and showing themselves to be masters of the game.

Mount Vernon, 25—Arlington, 0

The Bulldogs' fourth victory of the season came when, after a ragged first half, their grid machine got into action and literally smeared the Eagles on Askey Field.

Their first touchdown came in the first quarter as a result of a blocked punt by Davis on the Arlington 19-yard line. Cushen then spun over tackle from the 6-yard line to the 1-yard line. McMillan then went over standing up. The try for point failed.

The next score came in the third canto with Ellinger carrying the ball from the 25-yard line. The third came a few moments after a 42-yard march with Shepherd carrying the ball into pay dirt. A pass from Cushen to Wilkins gained the extra point.

In the final quarter a sustained 80-yard drive with Cushen bearing the brunt of the attack ended with six more points for the Bulldogs.

Mount Vernon had 22 downs while Arlington had only 5.

Mount Vernon, 37—Burlington, 0

Getting revenge for several defeats in past years, the Bulldogs tarred and feathered the Burlington Tigers with an excellent running attack.

With the backfield working to perfection, Mount Vernon made five touchdowns with regularity. The final score came in the last minutes of the game as the result of a 32-yard pass from Cushen to Wilkins.

The Bulldogs drew six penalties for a total of 50 yards while Burlington was set back but once for 15 yards.

Mount Vernon, 0—Anacortes, 0

Despite the scoreless tie in the annual Armistice game held at Anacortes, the Bulldogs won the Northwest championship before a crowd of more than two thousand persons.

Doing good work in center field, Heaman's boys bogged down when they reached scoring territory.

Davis, DeLong and Westerbeck played stellar games in the Bulldog line while Singer and McMillan gained yardage through the line.

Mount Vernon gained 10 first downs and 194 yards from passes and scrimmage while Anacortes made but two first downs and 35 yards from scrimmage.

Mount Vernon, 26—Sedro-Woolley, 6

The Bulldogs settled many old scores with their decisive victory over the Cubs in the annual Thanksgiving Day classic held on the latter's field.

Bob Cushen played his last game with a display of open and broken field running that will not be witnessed for seasons to come. McMillan, Singer, Ellinger and Shepherd were in there playing heads-up ball. DeLong, Davis, Hutchison and Bouslog were mainstays in the line, with Cooper, Westerbeck and Wilkins playing real football.

The Bulldogs made their first score on an end around play with Wilkins packing the ball. McMillan then went 12 yards off tackle for another tally in the second canto. The half ended 19-0 after an end run by Cushen for the third score.

The Cubs then made the only smear on Mount Vernon's record with two passes from Ropes to Jones which netted the Sedro eleven six points.

"Cecil" Singer soon made up for this by crashing through the line for the last touchdown of the season.

Wilkins, Bouslog, DeLong, Davis and Shepherd made the all-district team while the rest received places on the All-Star second team. The Bulldogs put Bouslog, DeLong, Davis, Westerbeck and Cushen on the all-county first team and the rest of the eleven on the second team.

Most of the men on Coach Heaman's team will be lost by graduation. They are Cushen, Westerbeck, Bouslog, Ellinger, Shepherd, Hutchison, Davis, DeLong, Wilkins, Johnson, Nermo and McMillan.

The champions were dined and feted by many local organizations and citizens but the crowning point of the season was the community banquet given in their honor. George Varnel, Seattle sports writer and well-known official, was the principal speaker. Frank Jenne, coach of the 1916 district championship team, was toastmaster and had arranged a lively, peppy program.

Coach Heaman then introduced each of the players and presented them with miniature gold footballs on behalf of the Mount Vernon citizens as tokens of their appreciation to the team.

Football Squad: Row 1; Wilkins, Hutchison, Davis, Westerbeck, Cooper, DeLong, Bouslog. Row 2; Coach Heaman, Cushen, Singer, Shepherd, Ellinger, McMillan, Ricketts, Beeman, Hill. Row 3; Lothian, Bice, Nermo, Shea, Dale, Schultz, Baden, Greene, Johnson.

Dame Chance, a fickle lady at best, showered her blessings on Mount Vernon High School during the football season, but, true to type, she changed her mind during the basketball season.

In their first games of the year, Coach Heaman's boys defeated Coupeville twice, Marysville twice, and Friday Harbor twice. They suffered two close defeats at the hands of a large, driving team from Lincoln High in East Stanwood.

Mount Vernon, 16—Concrete, 20

The county opener at Concrete on January 3 was a disappointing one for the local lads. Bottled up by a tight zone-defense, the Bulldogs couldn't break into the open for any clear shots.

Mount Vernon, 22—Anacortes, 39

In the second game of the county series, Anacortes defeated the Bulldogs badly. The Green and Whites were outclassed by the veteran Seahawk team.

Mount Vernon, 22—Burlington, 31

A zone-defense which they could not penetrate, again spelled defeat for the Bulldogs. Unable to get within shooting distance of the basket for the greater part of the game, Mount Vernon had to resort to long shots which were for the most part unsuccessful.

Mount Vernon, 21—Edison, 27

In a thrilling game which was nip-and-tuck till the last quarter, Edison eked out a victory from the local team. The Bulldogs were in the lead during the first quarter and held it intermittently for the remainder of the game.

Mount Vernon, 24—Sedro-Woolley, 26

Showing real basketball ability, Mount Vernon played a fast and furious game at the Cubs' gym on February 1, but lost in the final seconds because of fouls. The game started with a bang and maintained its pace for the greater part of the game.

Mount Vernon, 41—Hamilton, 18

Although winning the game by a handy margin, the Bulldogs looked poor even in victory, their first in the county series. Mount Vernon had possession of the ball most of the game but was ineffectual in scoring. Bouslog was by far the outstanding player with sixteen tallies to his credit.

Mount Vernon, 30—Burlington, 32

Burlington's Tigers invaded the Mount Vernon gym on February 11 and after a hard-fought game they managed to emerge from the struggle with another victory under their belts. The Bulldogs held a lead throughout the first quarter but dropped behind only to jump within striking distance of victory in the last minutes of the game.

Mount Vernon, 20—Anacortes, 16

The Bulldogs rose from mediocrity to championship caliber in a thrilling tussle at the Anacortes gym on February 14. Handing the Fidalgo quintet their first defeat in twenty starts, the Mount Vernon five outplayed and out-smarted the Seahawks.

Mount Vernon, 22—LaConner, 24.

Hampered by a small court, Mount Vernon played hard but went down to a determined team led by Nelson, a flashy, unerring shooter. Hutchison played a flashy game but was eliminated because of fouls.

Mount Vernon, 23—Sedro-Woolley, 35

In their last game of the season, a tired group of Mount Vernon boys played a mediocre game of basketball and were defeated by a fast-moving quintet from Sedro-Woolley.

Bullpups: Row 1; Hill, Ellinger, Garney, Whitehead. Row 2; Lloyd, Lothian, Watson.

Picture 1, Baseball: Row 1; Ewing, Treese, Johnson, Sandell, Sullivan, Kolkana, Whitehead, Singer, Wilkins, DeLong, Silvernail. Row 2; Helde, Ozaki, Simpkins, O'Hearne, Davis, Lloyd, Nelson, Spahr, Dale, Coach Kolkana.

Picture 2, Track: Row 1; Coach Moore, Bice, Snowden, Miller, Shepherd, Schlichting, Ewing, Blackburn, Risbell, Braun. Row 2; Judy, Beeman, McCain, Schultz, Stender, Windus, Bulla.

The baseball nine, coached by Mr. Kolkana, started the season off right by taking four straight pre-season games.

The first victory was over Hamilton, played on the latter's field. The "zip and fire," that goes along with every good team, was present and the boys brought home a 7 to 1 victory. Sandell's three-bagger was one of the highlights of that first game.

Singer's homer featured in a 9 to 5 victory over Anacortes. This second game was played on the home field. Good hitting on the part of the Bulldogs was responsible for the win over the Seahawks.

The green and white took Burlington in her stride to the tune of 19 to 3. Good hitting and snappy infielding once again showed up very strong in the Tiger tilt. However, good pitching was lacking for the Tiger nine.

Oak Harbor offered the opposition for the fourth pre-season game. The green and white journeyed to that city to bring home the bacon in a 9 to 3 victory. Good hitting again came to the front. In the sixth inning the bases were loaded when "Cecil" Singer stepped up to the plate and knocked one clear out of the park, to put the game on ice for Mount Vernon.

As the County play-offs started, Mount Vernon entered a slump and could not climb out of it. The Bulldogs were shut out by Anacortes, 6 to 0. Anacortes did some good hitting in getting two home runs and two doubles.

Sedro-Woolley then shut out the green and white, 13 to 0, on the former's field. The boys were in that well known rut and couldn't pull themselves out of it.

Letters went to Nelson, O'Hearne, Silvernail, DeLong, Sullivan, Johnson, Sandell, Wilkins, Whitehead, Singer, Lloyd, Treese and Davis.

With Nelson and O'Hearne, pitchers, back for more in '37, there should be a record to hang up at the close of next season.

Coach Moore, in calling the track turn-out, found only one returning letterman, Chester Windus. However, work started at once to round into shape the material offered.

The first meet of the season was held at Bellingham with Anacortes, Burlington and Whatcom giving the opposition. Naturally, with much green material the Bulldogs didn't make a good showing. The Northwest Annual Relay Carnival, held at Sedro-Woolley, proved to be too fast company for the green and white; the boys failed to place.

May 2 found Mount Vernon playing host to Sedro-Woolley's and Burlington's second teams on Askey Field. Sedro-Woolley placed first, Mount Vernon and Burlington following respectively. Willis Judy, distance man, was high-point winner, garnering a total of eleven points.

In the County meet, held at Sedro-Woolley, were Stender, Windus, Blackburn and Bice in the sprints; Judy, distances; McCain, high jump; Braun, discus, and McKenna in the hurdles.

All entrants placed in this last meet. Since no members of the track squad will be lost through graduation, prospects look very bright for Mount Vernon for next year.

Because of wet and cold weather the tennis squads were unable to begin practice until the middle of April.

However, the girls' tennis team had a successful year. They played matches with Snohomish, Arlington, Anacortes, and Fairhaven. The girls played especially well in the Arlington and Anacortes matches. Those who composed the team were, singles, Marion Lindbloom and Sigrid Yaeger; first doubles, Dolores Dailey, Lucille Thomas and Lora Mae Adamson; second doubles, Blanche Brown and Mary Dunlap.

The final match was played with Fairhaven. The Mount Vernon racquet wielders were entertained after the game as a return courtesy for having been hostesses to the Fairhaven group earlier in the season.

When Coach Lang called for a turnout only two lettermen were present, Dan Ellinger and Ben Martin. "Danny" won the singles championship of the County and made a good showing in the district tournament. Ben Martin and Clark Zook, who played first doubles, also made a good showing in the County tournament at Mount Vernon.

Letter awards went to Dan Ellinger, Ben Martin, Walter Robertson, Milton Trafton, Jimmy Ellinger, Clark Zook, Glen Duncan, Everett Fleming and Jimmie Pemberton.

Tennis: Row 1; Dailey, Yaeger, Lindbloom, Adamson, Thomas, Duncan, J. Ellinger, Zook, Pemberton. Row 2; Martin, D. Ellinger, Fleming, Trafton, Robertson.

Picture 1, G. A. A. Officers: Irene Jost, Secretary-Treasurer; Virginia Valentine, Vice-President; Marion Lindbloom, President; Miss Olson, Adviser; Carmelita McDonnell, Chairman of Minstrel Show; Margie Quinn, Chairman of Play Day.

Picture 2, G. A. A. Minstrel Show: Row 1; Barrow, Valentine, Chinn, Mitchell, Lindbloom, McDonnell, Walker, Schultz, Davis, Partington. Row 2; Yaeger, Woodard, Richmond.

Picture 3, All-Star Basketball and Soccer: Row 1; Meyers, White, Quinn, Thomas, Adamson, Herrle, Richmond, Nobles. Row 2; Allquist, Tarry, Nelson, Davis, Branigin, McDonnell, Brickey.

Under the leadership of Marion Lindbloom, the president, the G. A. A. spent another successful year. The other officers were Virginia Valentine, vice president, and Irene Jost, secretary-treasurer.

A ski trip, a minstrel show, and a number of sports, and other activities helped the girls to enjoy the year, 1935-1936.

This seemed to be a year for the Juniors. They started out by winning the coveted soccer championship by a thrilling victory over the Seniors. Then came basketball and they again came through with a championship. They continued their winning streak by defeating the Sophomores in the final servusball game, thus winning that championship. There was a big, enthusiastic baseball turnout, for this is one of the most enjoyable outdoor sports for the girls.

The first big event given by the girls was the Minstrel Show, sponsored by the G. A. A. for the purpose of raising money for the ski trip to Mount Baker. This program was presented to a large audience on December 6. Nancy Chinn, Ona Zell Mitchell and Sigrid Yaeger supplied a great deal of the humor of the evening. The audience greatly enjoyed Marion Lindbloom's trained flea, Annabelle.

Spills and thrills marked the two days which the girls spent at Mount Baker. This outing proved to be a lot of fun for the twenty-three girls who went on the annual trip between semesters. Besides the G. A. A. members, four teachers were present. The group spent the night at Shuksan in cabins, but skied near the lodge, where they had their meals. In the evening parties were held in several of the cabins.

Play Day was held here April 4, 1936. About one hundred girls from every school in the county and Bellingham participated in the contests. Margie Quinn was chairman for the day. At nine o'clock folk dancing started and games followed. These occupied the whole morning. In the file the girls marched down to the Baptist church where luncheon was served. Each school provided its part of the after-luncheon entertainment. When the girls returned to the school a posture contest was held. Rae Snyder of Fairhaven was awarded first place. The rest of the afternoon was spent in ballroom dancing.

Badminton, an increasingly popular sport everywhere, had many participants among the G. A. A. members this spring. In April and May a ladder tournament, in which each entrant challenged the girl whose name appeared above hers, was held. Of the forty-two entered in the tournament, Carmaleta MacDonnell came out champion. Winifred Brickey finished in second place; Ruth Thompson, third, and Betty White, fourth.

On May 13 four girls traveled to Anacortes to play badminton with a team there. The purpose of this game was to initiate the sport on the same basis as tennis, in the hope that matches might be played between schools next year.

Another sport attracting many girls was archery. About thirty girls turned out consistently before school in the spring to shoot their arrows at the targets. The Freshmen girls, while not in the early morning turnouts, had much fun with this sport in their regular gym classes and some of them developed a surprising degree of accuracy. An archery tournament, in which girls from all classes participated, was held on May 19. The Columbia Round was the form of competition used. In this each girl shot 24 arrows at a distance of 30 yards, 24 at 40 yards and 24 at 50 yards. Outstanding archers were Peggy Sharp, Charlotte Spratley, Winifred Brickey and Dorcas Lewis.

The G. A. A. members this year decided to have some goal in addition to that of excellent sportsmanship. They voted to spend part of their money every year to increase the athletic equipment for girls. It was expected that many girls unable to compete in the more strenuous sports would find some athletic activity to interest them. Equipment bought this year included five bows, a dozen arrows and badminton material. The girls plan to have ping-pong equipment for next year.

Coaches: Row 1; Olson, Girls' Sports; Row 2; Lang, Tennis; Kolkana, Baseball; Row 3; Heaman, Football and Basketball; Appelgate, Track; Moore, Track; Lincoln, Football.

Coaches at Mount Vernon High School had a busy year during 1935-36. There was much activity in all sports.

Miss Valdis Olson had the greatest variety of sports to coach. In the course of the school year she held inter-class contests in soccer, baseball, tennis, archery, basketball, servus ball, speed ball and badminton. Her tennis teams also played matches with nearby schools.

Coach Heaman, football and basketball mentor, began football practice in the latter part of August and guided a championship team through a tough schedule. Basketball began on December 1. Mr. Heaman worked long and late in an effort to mold a winning team from his pre-season squad.

Coach Kolkana and his baseball team went through the season with a series of wins to their credit.

Mr. Lang, tennis coach, has always had a creditable team to represent the school on home and foreign courts.

Mr. Appelgate and Mr. Moore, track coaches, worked hard with a group of green aspirants in an attempt to bring forth teams in the next few years that will equal those of the years of 1926, 1927 and 1928.

Girls' Green M: Row 1; Lindbloom, Pender, Quinn, Adamson, Lerch, Branigin, Johnson, Fulton, Gehring, McDonnell. Row 2; Lewis, Davis, Thomas, Herrle, White, Webster, Brickey, Stearns. Row 3; Yaeger, Miss Olson, Coach; Bernhoft, Valentine, Jost, Palmer, Walker, Moen.

Boys' Green M: Row 1; Green, Martin, Shea, Cooper, Cushen, Wilkins, Davis, Dale, Ellinger, Westerbeck. Row 2; Sullivan, Johnson, Christian-son, Whitehead, Singer, De Long, Burkhalter, Coach Heaman. Row 3; Hutchison, O'Hearne, Hill, Treese, Silvernail, Windus, Foster, Ozaki, Shepherd. Row 4; Pearce, Spahr, Sandell, Ricketts.

Helen Branigin headed the Girls' Green M very successfully during 1935-36. She was assisted by Winifred Brickey, vice-president, and Josephine Webster, secretary-treasurer. Miss Olson advised the club. The Girls' Green M is an honorary organization, to belong to which is the aim of every G. A. A. member.

To become a member of this organization a girl must have earned 800 points. One hundred points are awarded to every girl making a first team, seventy-five points to a girl making a second team, and to a girl turning out but not making a team, twenty-five points are awarded. A girl also gets twenty-five points for being chosen manager or being elected to an all-star team. Members of an all-star team are selected by the coach, the managers, and the captains.

At the beginning of the year the Green M gave a party for Miss Olson, the new coach.

Eleven girls were initiated into Green M this year. These girls were Luella Nelson, Florence Tarry, Rita Moen, Connie Brusegaard, Lois Allquist, Edna Herrle, Irene Jost, Isabelle Meyer, Joyce Meyer, Olive Omenaas and Peggy Richmond.

On May 14, at Samish Island a picnic and "fun" initiation was held for the new members. The eleven girls were seen around school that day wearing their initiatory garments. A formal initiation and election of officers were held the following week.

Glen Wilkins was president of the Boys' Green "M" Club, Bud Cooper, vice-president and Mervin Bouslog, secretary-treasurer. Coach Heaman acted as adviser. This club is an honorary organization formed for boys earning a green "M" in any major sport.

In order to win a letter award a boy must have earned one hundred and eighty points. Eight points are awarded per quarter in football, four in basketball, and seven per inning in baseball. Thirty are awarded per point in track or for a place in a county meet and fifty for each tennis match. In each sport a service award of forty-five points is given for turning out. All points over one hundred and eighty must be forfeited upon receiving a letter. However, all points below one hundred and eighty may be added to those earned the following year in the same sport.

Twenty-two new members were initiated into the Green "M" during the year 1935-36. These boys were: Gordon Shea, John Baden, Walter Ricketts, Paul Foster, John Johnson, Carl Nermo, John Sullivan, Walter Robertson, Milton Trafton, Jimmy Ellinger, Clark Zook, Glen Duncan, Everett Fleming, Jimmie Pemberton, Charlie Nelson, Gene Stender, Robert Blackburn, Lloyd Bice, Willis Judy, Jack McCain, Ken McKenna and Irving Lloyd.

MVHS

SEPTEMBER

3	School starts	Only 37 more shopping weeks till graduation.
8	F. F. A. mountain trip	The F. F. A. goes for things big. Now it's mountains; once 'twas pigs.
12	Frosh get big sisters	Free suckers make big day for senior girls.
19	Class meetings Girls' Green M Party	Murr nominated song leader! They proved that Anaconda hasn't the only great dilating power.
20	Fairhaven night game	Our Bulldogs are under the bright lights at last. They picked up the ball and went places fast.
25	Major Schoop's assembly	Stage hands score big hit in Major's uniforms.
26	End of membership contest	Seniors win by great majority of one!
27	Assembly, pep rally	Those yells for the iron men sure put them on their mettle.
28	Snohomish game	You should have heard us shout and roar. Snohomish couldn't make a score.

OCTOBER

4	Junior assembly Whatcom game	Bjork dramatizes hamburger. These iron men sure put on a show, They're three teams down and four to go.
	Girls' Mixer	Spanish motifs and enough girls to make Solomon wonder.
18	End of Skagina contest	Miss Gerriets' room wins by a sweet tooth.
19	Arlington game	Well, whad'ya know! Our opponents' score was round zero.
22	Vaccinations	Students stave off variola. You could fool them.
25	Amateur hour	Bill Moore goes amateur, must be the Bowes in him.
26	Report cards	The alphabet doesn't lie, Junior. Now tell mamma, WHY DID YOU GET D?
28-29	Teachers' Institute	Honorable pedagogues throw up towel.
30	Waltners are back	Talk of making cow national emblem.
31	Pep rally—Hallowe'en	Frosh proved blaze. No sale on pumpkins.

NOVEMBER

1	Burlington game	Hold that tiger!
11	Anacortes game	That makes us CHAMPIONS! Need I say more?
15	J. C. Play	We sincerely applaud "The Phantom Dirigible."
22	Virginia Judge	Spanish and other language clubs aid Skagina. Muchas gracias!
25	Spitwads condemned	Windus says spitwads must go! Students mourn.
27	Pep Club assembly	Mock trial finds Bulldogs not guilty.
28	Turkey game	So ends the season of the Northwest champions of '35.

DECEMBER

4	Football banquet	Varnell speaks. Boys receive gold footballs.
6	G. A. A. minstrel show	Cast played ring around the bathtub for six weeks after.
10	J. C. and H. S. Boys' joint assembly	Burlesque featuring hairy legs and knobby knees.
11	Governor Martin speaks	All hail the Governor!
13	Amateurs	Dobson scores again.
17	Christmas concert	Hark, The Herald Angels Sing.
20	Christmas Assembly Christmas vacation	Santa Davis brings dee cream puff. Joyeux Noel.

JANUARY

1	No school	Happy New Year! Pupils run out of new leaves.
3	G. A. A. hike	Must have been a hitch in it somewhere.
4	Concrete game	Basketball rears its head.
8	End of six weeks	Apple polishers overworked.
10	Anacortes game	Quint wins moral victory.
15-16	EXAMS	Calling all brains! Calling all brains!

MVHS

JANUARY

17	Four seniors graduate	Sund valedictorian.
18-19	G. A. A. ski trip	I never, never hope to ski, Unless I bump into a tree.
24	The Perfect Tribute	To the perfect president.
30	County Leaders' banquet	"Flames" raked over coals.

FEBRUARY

4	Hamilton game	Quint plays fruit basket.
6	All-school play	There in the audience sat I, Applauding the dramatis personae.
11	Exchange assembly: Burlington	Good entertainment is lots of fun, For this we thank you, Burlington.
14	Anacortes game	Ice cream bars principal entertainment.
18	Poggie Club meets fishermen	When suckers meet, somebody's bound to get hooked.
20	Midsummer Night's Dream	Would we had been Bottom—he was tops.
21	Junior and Senior Boys' Assembly	It was something about a soldier.
27-28	Second six weeks	Grand reopening of Dog House.
28	Sedro game	We win a duck.

MARCH

5	Ski Club address	Stay on feet, says expert.
6	Assembly	April showers; Rank (his name, silly).
12	Benefit game	Eighth graders show form.
15	Boys' ski trip	The boyski went outski to ski and landed on his—ski.
20	Operetta	Just goes to show what a dose of birdseed will do to one.
25	Key Club initiation	Garlic shampoos insure individuality.
31	Little Theater Night	A little theater but a big success.

APRIL

2	Pomona Glee Club	Our boys become harmony conscious.
4	Play Day	Keep your eyes on the G. A. A. They have worked—but can they play!
7	Spring Vacation	Worm's holiday (not you, teach).
12	Anacortes game	Batters up!
17	Girls' Mixer	Comics come to life.
17	Hamilton game	Went to a ball game—got hit in the eye, Was I insulted when they cried, "Kill that fly."
24-25	Band to Bremerton	One look at our girls from the heads to their feet, And the navy went definitely Piccolo Pete.
24	Burlington game	Bulldogs tree Tigers.

MAY

6	Oak Harbor game	A swat in time saves nine.
6	County tennis meet	Plenty of action and racket—specially racket.
8	Anacortes game	Dessie Schultz loses 50c.
8	Senior Play	Salvation of Seniors' lamp post.
13	Senior Day	They no longer sneak but still make hay, The Seniors now have Senior Day. Big pants warming held for initiates.
14	Green M initiation	Congrats, Sigrid.
15	Mothers' and Daughters' Banquet	Again the bally cerebrum medulla is under stress—tallyho, you ruddy Seniors.
22	Senior Exams	Lemons predominate.
23	Tea	Seniors go to church.
24	Baccalaureate	The beginning of the end.
27	Commencement	Hey, sign my annual.
28	Last day

All set for action!
Winter wonderland.

Ma and Pa.
Must be spring.
Teacher must be out!
Women haters!

School artists?
Taking time out.
House of David?

The trio.
Manual Arts Champs.
What'll we do?
Curiosity.

3:33 P. M.
Just posing.
Was love in bloom?

Black face talent.
Sweet music.

Staff Workers.
Is three a crowd?
Hi toots.
You're dragging.

All set for what?
No lifts.
Smiling Irk.

All's fair in play.
From Ona?
Just loafing.
Target shooting.

Activity Period.
Our Alma Mater.
Crazier than a bedbug!

Part of the Christmas
Program.
Happy landings.
Waiting for the bus.

Old Man Winter.
Construction underway.
Hold still, please!

Accomplishments.
Janitors pose too.
Itchy hands.

Ona

Doc Baynton

"Belle"

Signatures

Jack McCain

Edna

Keith Stewart

James Stale

Harold

Hendrickson

Benny Pappas

Betty

Chimmy

Ruth Thompson

Betty Shan

John (Lumpy) Hosmer

Milton Trafton

Virginia Spigden

Harold Johnson

Mildred S.

John Zook

Francis Bobketts

Edna

Kilainelias

Bettie Claire Jones

Lynn Kullstrom

Donna

Jackie

Theresa

Sue

Helen

Sue

Mary

Vertical signature on the right edge of the page

Edgar
Johann
39
Mayer
38
M.K.

Corcas Lewis

Herbert
Brown
Lark
Book
Lora Adamson

Jan August

Worthy
Ballson

Harold
Silverhill
"Pecker"

Edna Lathair

Margaret
Brent

Mrs. Palmer

Jim
Ellinger
39

Joyce
Mayer

Le...
Le...

Pattie Hastie